In the past our pastors have had the privilege of sharing with families the struggle and hard work to put together an appropriate celebration and remembrance for their deceased loved one. In these experiences we also have seen how important and significant it is for families to have communication from their loved one about the funeral or memorial service. Such forethought makes their planning easier, and it helps focus their efforts toward how their loved one wants things to be.

We have prepared this resource to be used when a loved one has died, as well as assisting in making plans for your own desires for your service. In this Funeral and Memorial Service Planning Guide, we have included information that we hope will aid you in the many decisions that you face. If you have any further questions, or other issues arise, that we have not included, please feel free to call upon us to assist you. We will be glad to help.

Grace and peace,

Rev. Janet Stilwell

Associate Pastor of Pastoral Care and Outreach

A Place to begin...Process, Protocol & Considerations

Prior to death...

Our ministers consider it a sacred privilege to visit and pray with you during this difficult time. If time and circumstances allow, please call the church office (936-756-3395) to notify us of your situation.

One of our ministers will make every effort to come and pray with you and your family. In the event that you call on the weekends, your information will be directed to the "minister on call" by our emergency extension in the voicemail system. A minister will be in touch with you as soon as possible.

When death occurs...

When your loved one dies, please call the church office. If possible, one of our ministers will come and be with you. If this occurs on the weekends, your call will be directed to the minister on call by our emergency extension in the voicemail system. The minister will call you back as soon as possible.

Setting the date and time for service...

Our ministers are happy to help you plan a meaningful service to celebrate the life of your loved one. One of our pastors will coordinate the service alongside Janet Cable, please call the pastor or Janet prior to scheduling the service date and time, so we can be sure to have access to the worship area you desire.

There are two areas where services may be held at the church:

The Chapel which seats up to 170

The Sanctuary which accommodates a service for 100 -1,200

Due to the ongoing worship service schedule of the church, funerals and memorial services* will not be held on Sundays. In addition, the church typically does not perform services during specific holiday weekends, or church events. The minister will review the availability of our facilities and his or her calendar in order to set the service at a time that is convenient for all.

*Memorial Service: Casket is not present

Funeral Service: Casket is present

Planning the service...

The minister that is leading the service will want to meet with the family members at the church or at your home and coordinate the service. This is a time to share stories and favorite memories of your loved one. Family members will find this to be a very helpful time as well as a source of comfort.

Your loved one may have left instructions about the service. Please share these instructions with the pastor at this time. In the back of this resource, you will find a list of hymns and scripture suggestions that will be a helpful resource to you prior to meeting meet with the minister.

Expenses...

If you are a member of the church, there are no building usage fees for services held at First Methodist Conroe. However, there are costs for personnel.

Honorarium for Ministers: $100-$200

Organist or Pianist: $125

Vocalist or Instrumentalist: $75

Media Specialist: $250

Live Stream Specialist: $75

Custodial Fee (on weekends): $125 in Chapel or $200 in Sanctuary.

Fees are due at the time of the service and should be payable directly to the individuals.

Flowers & Memorial Gifts...

The family may wish to provide flowers for the altar. Delivery should be at least one and a half hours prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, families may wish to offer donations to the church in memory of their loved one.

Additional Services Provided for Families...

First Methodist Conroe wishes to be of assistance to our members during this difficult time. We offer a picture table for those that wish to honor their loved ones by displaying memorabilia and/or photos. The church also has available an easel for large portraits. Many families like to have a guestbook that is either furnished by the funeral home or bought by the family. The church has a bookstand to place that book on for attendees to sign.
